

Give and Goes

Have the players partner up with one ball per group. Place two cones about 5 yards apart and have the partners line up one behind each cone. The players will pass back and forth while moving up the field. Make sure they stay spread out. Also explain to them that their pass should be ahead of their teammate so their teammate can run onto the ball.

